

Foamex Innovations Operating Company Changes Name to FXI, Inc.

Effective immediately, Foamex Innovations Operating Company will change its name to FXI, Inc. Due to the volume of authorizations requiring amendments to reflect this change, the Managing Director of DDTC is exercising the authority under 22 CFR 126.3 to waive the requirement for amendments to change currently approved authorizations.

All currently approved DSP authorizations identifying Foamex Innovations Operating Company will not require an amendment to reflect the change in address. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the currently approved licenses and agreements by the license holder.

Pending authorizations received by DDTC identifying Foamex Innovations Operating Company as a party to the license will be adjudicated without prejudice. A copy of this website notice must be attached to the approved license by the license holder.

New license applications received after July 1, 2011, identifying Foamex Innovations Operating Company as a party to the license may be returned without action for correction.

A copy of this website notice must be maintained by the license holder and presented with the relevant license to Customs & Border Protection at time of shipment.

All currently approved agreements will require an amendment to be executed to reflect this name change. The agreement holder will be responsible for amending their agreement. The executed amendment will be treated as a minor amendment per 22 CFR 124.1(d) and must be submitted as such.

Pending agreement applications identifying Foamex Innovations Operating Company will be adjudicated without prejudice. With the filing of the executed agreement, the agreement holder must attach a copy of this web notice as explanation for the name change in the executed agreement.
